Fund Drive for Scout Hut Near $800 by Wednesday

The Hamlin Lions Club's fund raising drive for a Boy Scout Hut got underway here this past week and the response has been very good in the early reports, according to drive chairman W. T. Johnson.

News and Views . . .

and what have you

by BOB CRAIG

If you read this column last week and wondered why there were two different references to the BCD banquet in it, it was because the last part of the column was not supposed to be in the column at all. It was written as a regular news story for the paper but was put with the column in the shop.

While we feel that the banquet is important for the town and should have a high percentage of the townspeople in attendance, we did not think it was necessary to cover it twice in the same column.

While we are on the subject, don't forget that you can save 50¢ a ticket by buying before February 1.

I do not believe that the report on cancer and smoking had as big an impact on the public as most people probably thought that it would. Probably for two reasons: one is that publicity over the past two years had convinced the public the report would reveal just about what it did, and the other is that human nature being what it is people just do not seem to be frightened into doing things that they probably should.

This second reason is probably the main cause for so much indifference. All of the facts, figures and research into the tremendously high traffic deaths have failed to make much headway in solving that problem. The death penalty is imposed for murder for the same reason but the person who commits such an act never seems to be concerned about the penalty involved because they do not think that they will be caught.

Whether it is smoking, driving or murder involved, man always takes the attitude that he will be in the percentage that nothing will happen to.

When the experts can come up with a way to overcome this quirk of human nature they will be able to solve lots of our problems, but who knows but what they will create just as many more when they do.

The following editorial is written by H. M. Baggarly, editor of the Tulsa Herald, and while it is extremely long it is reprinted here in full because we feel it presents the issue of school prayer in a light that everyone should consider.

It has been a number of months since the U. S. Supreme Court upheld a decision of a lower court that the New York Regents were acting illegally when they composed a prayer and required that all New York public school students recite this prayer each morning.

Wails from both the clergy and laity continue to be heard. Clergymen, all the way from Billy Graham down to Billy Hargis, damn the U. S. Supreme Court, charging it with "kicking the Bible out of the schools" and "dishonoring God."

Laymen . . . if we may use the term loosely . . . who haven't been inside a church for a generation, who make no effort to send their children to Sunday school, are horrified that the Court is acting "in the interest of atheism and Communism."

We join all those persons who would honestly desire for their children religious training. The ideal for a Christian would be to have his children saturated with Christianity in

By Tuesday the drive had raised around $800 of the $2,000 to $2,500 expected to be needed with only a few of the Lions Club members having reported to Johnson at that time.

The club is making a canvas of all of the business men of the city as the first part of their drive to secure enough money to build the concrete block building to be located on the Camp Fire property on S.W. Ave E.

While no definite building plans have been drawn as yet, early intentions called for a 16 by 48 foot building to be constructed of concrete blocks. The committee hopes to put steel windows and doors in the structure to hold down future maintenance costs.

In an effort to reach the people who might not be contacted in any other way, a "Buy a Block" campaign has been launched through the Herald this week . . . A 25¢ donation will buy one concrete block to be used in the building. An estimate of the number of blocks that will be needed has been set at 1,200. On another page of this issue is a coupon that can be used to send money for blocks to Johnson.

The scouts are still trying to sell the property they own that is located on S. W. Ave E and use the money on this project.

The building when completed will serve well over a 100 boys now active in the scouting program in Hamlin.

Under terms of the agreement he will receive 15 percent of all delinquent taxes, penalty and interest collected. Mr. Hart has had a parttime employee in the office of Tax Assessor-Collector A. J. French to assist in the work. Judge Leon Thurman reported that right of way for Highway 277 was about all acquired. ### Only 50 Poll Taxes Issued by BCD

The sale of poll tax receipts at the office of the Hamlin Board of Community Development is lagging as only 50 have been sold the first half of the month. Last year 300 receipts were obtained through the local sub-station, according to the BCD secretary, Mrs. Ned Moore.

Residents are urged to buy their poll taxes early so as to prevent a last minute rush.

COUNTY DADS LET CONTRACT TO COLLECT DELINQUENT TAXES

Gas Co. at a cost of $4,398.00 and Humble Oil Co., $3,631.77, also along Highway 277 right of way.

Representatives of several insurance companies met with the court to discuss possibility of writing hospital insurance for county employees. No decision was reached.

A representative from Burroughs Corporation from Abilene told of work a posting machine would do in the tax office. Mr. French said he would need a piece of equipment similar to this if he was to be able to get tax notices out in time this year after the new valuations are delivered to the county by McMorries and Co. who have been employed to make a survey of property values in the county. No action was taken on the purchase.

TATE MAY AND TED RUSSELL END LONG TENURES HERE

Floyd Clifton was named President and Leldon Clifton, chairman of the board of the Farmers and Merchants National Bank of Hamlin at the annual meeting of stockholders here Tuesday. The Cliftons succeed Tate May and Ted Russell, chairman of the board and president, respectively, who have announced their retirement from the bank.

Other action by the board was the naming of Joe E. Ford cashier and director. He succeeds Miss Lennie Greenway who is retiring as cashier. Miss Greenway has been vice president and cashier of the bank since 1950. She will remain a member of the board.

Floyd Clifton has been executive vice president since he and his brother, Leldon, bought controlling interest in the bank here in 1960. He came here from New Mexico where he was vice president and cashier of the Hot Springs National Bank. He held similar positions with the bank in Rotan before that time.

The new president reported that the bank had the best year in its history this past year with deposits reaching an all time high. They were a half million dollars higher than any previous year on record. He said Wednesday morning that, "The future looks real bright for this area and that he felt that Hamlin was one of the best business towns of its size in West Texas."

Since coming to Hamlin the new bank head has taken an active part in the civic affairs of the community, serving on the City Council, the board of directors of the Hamlin BCD and is a member of the Rotary Club.

Leldon Clifton, the new chairman of the board, moved to Hamlin soon after buying into the bank here and has been a vice president in the organization, a position that he will continue to hold. He is an active member of the Lions Club and the First Baptist Church. He and his wife, Kennan, have two boys, Leldon Lewis and Jim. Mrs. Clifton teaches in the Hamlin Primary School. He was cashier with the First State Bank which was later chartered as a national bank and became the present Farmers and Merchants National Bank.

He was elected president of the bank in 1944 and served in this capacity until 1963 when he became chairman of the board.

He has been very active in the civic affairs of Hamlin and is active in the First Baptist Church here and in various

He has been with the bank 43 years.

Russell is a member of the First Baptist Church where he served as a deacon. He has served on the State Board of the Texas Baptist General Convention and as vice president of the State Baptist Sunday School Convention.

He has served as president of the Hamlin School Board, the Hamlin Lions Club and the Hamlin Shrine Club. He was one time City Secretary of the City of Hamlin and was on the original board of the Hamlin Memorial Hospital.

Miss Greenway was born in Abilene in 1891 and came to work with the old First National Bank in August 1918. When this bank was sold to the F and M in 1934 she was named assistant cashier. She was named cashier and vice president in 1950 and served in that capacity until her retirement.

She said Wednesday that at present she has no plans for the future but that after resting up some she will look into something.

Miss Greenway is a charter member of the B&PW Club here where she is currently serving as treasurer and has been a member of the Hamlin Cemetery Association since 1934, serving as secretary-treasurer.

She is a member of the National Association of Bank Women and served as Democratic Chairman here for a number of years. She and Mrs. Tom Burkley of Stamford were the first women in Jones County to serve on a jury panel when the Texas law was changed permitting women to serve.

She is an active member of the First Baptist Church.

Other officers who will remain in their present positions are W. T. Johnson, vice president; Buna Roundtree and Faye Atkinson, assistant cashiers.

PHILOSOPHER NOT INTERESTED IN HAVING COMPUTER TELL HIM TO FIX SAGGING GATE

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route 1 tangles with computer machines this week, his lettering dates. Dear editor:

According to some articles I've been reading in the newspapers lately, we're now entering the Computer Age.

As I understand it, electronic brain machines are being used more and more in business and government and science, and they seem to work. For example, one computer machine in a big insurance company office can do the work of 1,000 clerks, and do it faster and more accurately, without coffee breaks, summer vacations, or head colds.

Furthermore, man is using the machines to solve complicated problems, to analyze figures, to detect trends, to balance bank accounts, to advise what business course to take. All you do is feed the facts and figures to the computer and it grinds its gears and flashes its lights and types out the answer in two or three seconds, and you can rent one of the smaller, compact models for $100,000 a year.

I am not in the market for one.

I guess it would be fascinating to collect all the facts and figures on this Johnson grass farm, all the things that need to be done to increase its efficiency, tell the machine what the weather has been like for every week for the past 25 years, what the production has been, what the market has been, etc., and feed them to it and sit back and let it type out what my jobs are for 1954, but I would be uncomfortable with a machine that can tell me in 3 seconds what I ought to be doing for the next twelve months. One day at a time suits me fine, and hold by hour is even better.

I don't want any machine coming on this place and telling me the gate in the front yard is sagging, the kitchen roof has a leak, a board on the back step is loose, the pasture fence on the west line needs re-building, by tractor's valves need grinding, I ought to use more fertilizer, or I ought to modernize by book-keeping system.

I've known this for years, and if the machine wants to do something about it let it go ahead. I don't intend to.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Years Ago...

FIVE YEARS AGO:

The thousands of acres of small grain in the Hamlin territory got a semblance of relief Tuesday from the drought that has persisted for several weeks when about a quarter of an inch of snow fell over the area. While the dribble of moisture that results from the small snowfall will be of some benefit, grain farmers declare that the crops of wheat and oats planted last fall are still in dire need of some real wetness.

TEN YEARS AGO:

Grain in the Hamlin area has perked up the past several days following the three inches of moisture that has fallen this year in the territory.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO:

PRIDE AND JOY!

Proud Father... you bet... this is my child... she's sweet, trusting, lovely and brings great joy to my life. I work harder in order to better my income so that I can provide for her. She thrills me, and already I am making plans for her future. Right now we are all dressed up and getting ready to go to church. I love her, and I want the best for her. I want her to know early about God, and that he means a lot to me, and I want God to mean a lot to her, too!

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

FAIRVIEW NEWS

By MRS. ELMER JOINER

Regardless of what the weather man tells us, every week-end we have a new cold spell, it has been that way for the last year or more. Every Sunday is cold, which makes it hard to get a crowd out to church everywhere. It seems as if the old Devil has found out how to make ice down in his realm, and sends blasts of cold air every weekend, to keep people in their warm homes, and away from church services.

Flavil Holmes is on the sick list this weekend, he had the flu and went to work too soon, getting sick again.

A pioneer resident of this community, Mrs. Mattie Bruner, died last week in the Hamlin Hospital, where she has been a patient for the past eleven months. Although she had lived in Hamlin for many years, she and her husband, reared their family at the family home stead, formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Eli Bruner. Mr. Bruner preceded her in death many years ago.

We only learned, recently, that Mr. and Mrs. Eli Bruner have moved to Hamlin. Every few weeks some one else moves to town, so it will soon be such a few of us that we won't have any one to write about.

Mrs. Elmer Joiner went to Stamford Monday afternoon to visit with the Jimmy Joiners and found little grandson, Ronald, with a good case of chicken-pox. A late Sunday report was that the daughter, Jeanie, was really speckled at that time.

Mrs. Winson Gray attended the gift tea in Anson, Saturday afternoon, honoring Mrs. Pete Walker, the former Pat Meek.

The Leverett family ate lunch with the Stanley Jacksons, Sunday. The occasion was in honor of Mr. Jackson's birthday. Others attending besides the Leveretts, were Mrs. Mary Ellen Tanner and her mother, Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Bagley, all of Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Jones were Thursday night visitors with the Winson Grays.

Saturday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Bond, were Mr. and Mrs. Euell Bond, of Monahans, a brother of Mr. Bond. Also stopping by for a visit were Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Criswell and Cherry, from Lake Leon, near Ranger.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner visited with the Mel Jones Tuesday night.

Mrs. H. L. Ford's father, Mr. Fuqua, is visiting with them.

The Fairview church will begin a study course Wednesday night, which will be the book, "The Letter to the Ephesians." This will be taught by the pastor's wife, Kay Leverett, and urge all of our members to be on hand for this series of studies. Meeting time will be seven o'clock.

Mrs. Jack Wright and children, were absent Sunday the weather being so cold, they were afraid to venture out. Also on the same list were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Henry, since they haven't been too well anyway.

Mrs. Raleigh Bond, who has been ill the past several weeks reports that she is feeling much better.

Our church is hoping to be represented at the Regional Sunday School Conference January 28, in the First Baptist Church, Abilene.

Plans for the monthly Family Night have not been completed, but it will be held some time in the last week of the month. Time and place will be announced later.

Mrs. Tommy Brown Honored Friday Evening with Tea

Mrs. Tommy Brown, formerly Jeannette Green, was honored with a gift tea Friday from 7 to 9 p.m. in the parlor of the First Methodist Church.

Guests were introduced to the honoree, Mrs. Carl Green, mother of the honoree; Mrs. J. E. Brown, mother of the bride groom; Mrs. F. W. Poe, grand mother of the bridegroom.

Assisting with serving were Elizabeth Cunningham, Mary Margaret Turner, Mary Lou Patterson, Connie Jo Duncan, Carolyn Reynolds, Carolyn Reynolds, Mary Ann Elkins, Jean Scott and Barbara Graham.

The serving table was centered with an arrangement of blue and white carnations in a crystal container. All appointments were crystal.

Hostesses for the event were Mrs. J. C. Turner, John Ker Jones, Ervin Ueckert, O. J. Wagoner, Audrey Hodnett, V. E. Gardner, Cliff Reynolds Jr., C. E. Gregory, Don Compton, C. C. Painter, Don Gregory, J. Stanford, La Foy Patterson, L. J. Cunningham, S. C. Holl Irby Weaver, Homer Neal, R. Miers, Hollis Madden, and W. Niedeken.

The couple was married Dec. 22 in the home of the bride parents.

Mrs. Carlton to Host Literary Club Fri.

Mrs. A. B. Carlton will be the hostess for the 3 p.m. meeting Friday of the Hamlin Women's Literary Club. Mr. Richard Young will be the director for a program, "The Change of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization."

Mrs. Dick Maberry will discuss "Why N. A. T. O.?" Mr. A. A. Hackley will discuss "The Present Structure of N. A. T. O. and Prospects of the Future."

Parliamentary procedure report will be made by Mrs. R. D. Moore.

Friendship HD Club Installs Officers at Meeting Friday

The Friendship Home Demonstration Club met Friday afternoon at the Oil Mill Guest House. Mrs. Sol Branson, president, installed the following new officers: Mrs. Car Young, president; Mrs. B. H. Gardner, vice president; Mrs. M. S. Johnson, secretary; Mrs. E. G. Young, treasurer; Mrs. J. E. McCoy, council delegate; Mrs. Fred Carpenter, and Mrs. Noble Greer, reporters.

Mrs. Johnson gave a report on the gifts sent from the club to the State Hospital in Abilene. Refreshments were served to 12 members.

Mrs. Carpenter will be hostess for the next meeting Jan. 24 at 2 p.m. in the Oil Mill Guest House. Mrs. Johnson will be in charge of the program.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. — With less formality than he would display in warning his wife he was inviting guests to dinner at the Mansion, Gov. John Connally "announced" he is running for a second term.

Actually the announcement was no great surprise, although rumors continued that he was going to Washington, retire, or run for the Senate. But the informality of it did leave some reporters wondering if they heard him right.

"When are you going to announce?" a newsman asked at the start of Connally's first press conference since he was wounded by the same assassin who killed President Kennedy.

"What's wrong with right now?" the Governor shot back.

"Well, are you announcing now?" stammered another reporter.

"Good a time as any," shrugged the Governor nonchalantly. "I have no prepared statement, but I'll announce right now for re-election as Governor."

And that's the way it happened! Before the conference was over, a half-hour later, Connally also:

Predicted the Democratic national ticket, which he expects will be headed by his old friend President Lyndon Johnson, will beat the Republicans in Texas by a 60-40 margin.

Said he still sees no need for a special legislative session on congressional redistricting unless the Supreme Court unexpectedly acts early to uphold a lower court decision on "at-large" (statewide) elections for congressmen.

Declined to be drawn into U. S. Senate race controversy and efforts to find an opponent for Sen. Ralph Yarborough, but indicated waves of harmony engulfing President Johnson and Yarborough do not necessarily include him. Said Connally: "My thoughts are my own."

He is recovering his strength, has regained lost weight, has given up smoking, and has a collection of tailored slings for his shattered right arm including a grey herringbone sling, a blue serge, and a black velvet with a silk "lapel" and covered buckle in the back, all from a lady in Kentucky.

APPOINTMENTS MADE — Sherman Birdwell Jr., Austin funeral home operator, was Governor Connally's choice as employer representative on the Texas Employment Commission. Birdwell succeeds Jake Pickle who was elected to Congress from the 10th District last month.

Birdwell topped a long list of new appointments.

Connally renamed Paul Fulk of Wolf City and A. G. Thompson of Hamilton to the Texas Aeronautics Commission. Fulk is a past president of the Texas Press Association and owner of the Texas City Sun. Thompson is a business-rancher.

To the Nueces River Conservation.

GAS RATE APPEAL RATE

SET — The Railroad Commission has set a hearing January 21 to hear the appeal of Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company over refusal of several Northeast Texas towns to grant it a rate raise. Towns include: Atlanta, Bloomberg, Gilmer, Naples, New Boston, Omaha, Ore City and Queen City.

JUNIOR COLLEGES — Many people interested in state government and education are saying we need more junior colleges in Texas.

The National Education Association has said the country should add the first two college years to the present system of free public education.

Texas Research League has advised the State Board of Education that there are at least 17 counties in Texas which could qualify for new junior colleges: Angeline, Brazos, Dallas, Denton, El Paso, Hale, Hidalgo, (when Pan American becomes a four-year State college), Lubbock, McLennan; Tarant;

Taylor, Wichita, Tom Green (when San Angelo College joins the State system), Orange and Midland.

In Travis, Grayson, Liberty and other counties, junior colleges already have been authorized but local taxpayers haven't yet supplied the financing.

Other counties might join together and qualify for a junior college, if suggestions of the Research League are passed into law.

TEXAS AGRICULTURE — Lt. Governor Preston Smith, speaking to the State Association of Young Farmers in Austin, said that agriculture in Texas will continue to progress despite population shifts and changes in land use.

Smith said there are 224,000 farms in Texas today, with total value exceeding $14,500,000,000; that $2,500,000,000 worth of farm products were marketed in Texas last year; and that another $2,500,000,000 in farm machinery, seed, fertilizer, and other farming necessities were sold in Texas.

SCREW WORM COUNT ZERO — Texas stockmen did not report a single case of screw worms from Dec. 29 through the first week in January, according to Dr. R. G. Garrett of the Texas Animal Health Commission.

Dr. Garrett said the 17-day stretch without a case reported was a record breaker, and recalled that 157 cases were reported last January.

At the same time, he urged stockmen to inspect their animals carefully to make sure the screw worm doesn't get a new start.

SHORT SNORTS — State's general revenue fund showed a $23,800,000 deficit at the end of December. Total cash in all State fund was $235,300,000. House Speaker Byron Tunnell of Tyler announced for re-election to his House seat. George W. Bushy, chief of the inspection and planning division of the Department of Public Safety, is the State's Vehicle Equipment Safety Commissioner, under a new law designed to exercise control over safety equipment and expedite approval. Agriculture Commissioner John C. White, who has held office since 1951, has announced for a seventh term. Republic State Executive Committee will meet in Houston on January 18 to approve budget plans, survey its 1964 candidates and beef up its poll tax drive.

Keeping Up to Date

By May Y. Newberry
Jones County Home Demonstration Agent.

I have been contacted about using the coffee cans with the plastic tops for freezing foods. It is safe to freeze cooked and fresh foods in the coffee cans with plastic tops for dry foods only. This will apply to nuts, cookies, and any other foods free from moisture. Any other foods are likely to cause rust in the can making the food undesirable for consumption.

RADIO CLUB MEMBERS AID WRECK VICTIMS IN AREA

Members of the local Citizens Radio Club were instrumental in securing aid as they were the first to report two major automobile accidents last week. Friday, about 4:30 p.m. an accident involving four vehicles was reported by Monroe Wilson of Spur who happened to be at the scene, 1.6 miles north of here, soon after the wreck occurred.

Wilson made contact with Spencer Liles who phoned the Police Department.

Other members at the scene assisted in directing traffic and also furnished flares to help prevent accident to other vehicles. The Highway Patrolmen expressed appreciation to the club for this aid.

Gary Cooper was on his way to Stamford Saturday evening when he witnessed an accident near the city limits. By using the radio in his car he was able to get help there immediately after the wreck in which two persons were injured. Cooper reached Delton Jackson who in turn called the Police Department. The funeral home, hearing the report via radio, sent an ambulance to the scene and carried Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nall to the hospital here.

Mr. and Mrs. Nall were treated at the hospital for minor injuries and released Tuesday.

The accident occurred on Highway 92 as Mr. and Mrs. Nall and a car driven by George Washington were both traveling east, at the time of the accident. Also damaged was a parked vehicle, owner's name not available.

On another occasion a local radio fan, Gene Wilcox, contacted Mrs. Jerry Pritchard who turned in the alarm for a fire on West Lake.

Membership in the radio club continues to grow. At present there are 41 active members.

No technical knowledge of radio is required to receive a license from the Federal Communications Commission. License fee for a period of five years is $8.00. This came into effect the first of this year.

A person with a CB radio in his home (base station) and one in his automobile (mobile unit) can maintain contact with the other as far away as Abilene. This is a convenience to say the least. Farmers and Ranchers who live in town can have direct contact with their personnel or other members of the family at all times. Business men in Hamlin are finding the radio very useful as well as profitable.

Anyone interested in CB radio or who would like to join the club contact Spencer Liles.

NEIGHBORS HELP TUXEDO FARMER WITH FIELDS THURS.

There are those who would have everyone believe that the pioneer spirit of helping each other passed out of style several generations ago, but don't you believe it.

True, with larger farms, big powerful tractors, a specialized economy and other modern developments, we see none of the old-time barn-raising or house-raising that the old timers like to tell about.

But let a man become ill or fall into a bad situation where he really needs help, and all his friends and neighbors will be right there to help.

Joe Carlton, who farms near the Tuxedo Community found this out Thursday morning when 13 tractors and men pulled into his fields about 9 a.m. By 3 p.m., his entire 300-acre farm was plowed and in shape to await spring rains.

Last Oct. 28, Mr. Carlton suffered a serious heart attack. After he was on the road to recovery he received the doctor's verdict: "No work for at least a full year."

Luckily, the Carlton crop was almost harvested. With help from a brother, the harvesting operations were completed.

Tuxedo area farmers got together and picked a day when all of them would get together and plow the Carlton place. On the appointed day it rained.

Another day was set. It rained again.

Then Thursday, Jan. 9, was selected and it didn't rain.

The 13 tractors were equipped with one-way disc breaking plows and tandem discs. The large fleet of equipment spread out over the 300-acre farm. Bill Pritchard, a coordinator of the work force, estimated the tractors were covering 50 to 60 acres each hour.

Twenty-four men helped with the project. The ones who weren't driving tractors were kept busy hustling back and forth from field to field keeping the tractors distributed in fields where they could get the most work done.

should you pamper a Princess?

Depends on which princess—the teenager or the telephone. All teenage princesses—so we're told—glory in a little pampering.

But the Princess® telephone is so well made and trouble free that no pampering is required. Just dust it occasionally or wipe it with a damp cloth.

That, plus a little care in handling, is all the attention any phone needs. And phones almost never need repair—but if something does go on the blink, we'll fix it promptly at no extra charge.

We think it's our job to keep right on improving your telephone service and making it of greater personal value to you.

689 Area People Checked on Social Security Benefits

689 persons in and around Hamlin took pains in 1963 to find out for sure about their rights and responsibilities under social security, according to Mrs. Fay Ford, field representative from the Abilene district office who visits Hamlin regularly.

Mrs. Ford knows the above

because she had that many personal interviews on her visits, with 148 applications for retirement, disability, or survivor benefits being filed with her.

She suggests that every person past the age of 62 who has not already checked up on potential social security checks, as well as those of any age under 65 who have become so severely disabled that they are unable to do any substantial gainful work, make certain to see her on one of her future visits here. She will be in Hamlin on January 28 at 10 o'clock a.m. at the Fire Station.

COLUMN—

—Continued from Page 1 each phase of his life. Many such people, primarily the honest ones, have felt so strongly along these lines that they have established and patronized parochial schools. The Catholics and Lutherans pioneered in this field. In later years, evangelical Protestants have joined in the establishment of Christian day schools.

Others, apparently, would transform the public schools into parochial schools . . . their own denomination, of course.

For many years public schools have been closely associated with religion . . . and without criticism due to the fact that (1) all society has honored religion by tax concessions and otherwise, (2) no one wanted to go on record as hindering the work of the church, and (3) the masses, feeling that Christian exercises at least were harmless, simply didn't care.

The legality of the matter has never before been a consideration.

In predominantly Protestant communities were conducted in what the schools even officially called "chapel," visiting evangelists were invited to speak to the student body, the virtues of Protestantism over Catholicism were discussed in class since there were no Catholics present who might be offended.

Church and school worked hand in hand by scheduling no school activities on Wednesday night which theoretically was universally observed as "prayer-meeting night." Churches sought to have no school activities scheduled during their annual or semi-annual revival meetings.

Protestant services were conducted in connection with graduation.

In predominantly Catholic communities, nuns were employed as teachers, wearing, of course, their clerical garb. The Catholics, much like the Protestants, reflected their religion in their public school activities.

Regardless of our approval or disapproval of these religious exercises as they have been practiced, we must admit, if we are honest, that both Protestants and Catholics have been guilty of "mixing church and state." The truth has been that many people, without being aware of it, have believed and do believe in mixing church and state. Whenever we desire to advance the cause of our religion via the public schools, we believe in mixing church and state!

We cannot even read the Bible in school, as an act of worship, without mixing church and state. Our selection of the particular translation of the Bible which we use is an injection of sectarianism into the act. The RSV, according to some fanatics, is "honey-combed with Communism." Certainly there would be objection in some communities if a teacher read from the Douay version.

Those who insist on compulsory prayers and compulsory Bible reading in the schools might ponder the question, "Would I want my child to be compelled to recite a prayer written by a Catholic, a Mormon, a Jehovah Witness or one who condones the National Council of Churches . . . or the American Council of Christian Churches?"

If we would be honest, we must admit that religious exercises in public schools are in the same category with a lot of other things. We go through stages when, even though we may be technically in violation of the law, public opinion demands that enforcement agencies look the other way. Park on the wrong side of the street is condoned in some instances even though there is a technical violation . . . and public opinion has demanded that school buses be used to transport kids to a church picnic, that local ministers participate in school programs and the like.

So long as these practices go unchallenged, everybody is happy.

We are quite sure that there was nothing offensive in the prayer composed by the Regents of the State of New York . . . but there is a principle involved. What if somebody composed a prayer that referred to the Virgin Mary?

Regardless of our opinion as to either the desirability or the legality of conducting religious exercises in public schools, let us consider what courses honest, conscientious Christians might take in even public schools decided to eliminate religious training. They might:

1. Rise up in "righteous indignation" and damn the U. S.

Supreme Court, demand its impeachment, call it anti-God, and in a hundred ways give vent to temper, hatred and false accusation. They might even defy the Court. . . a la Wallace or Barnett.

2. Quietly and without ostentation turn to other sources for the spiritual training of our children. The "godless" U. S. Supreme Court in its decision suggested . . . even urged that the home and church be used for the spiritual education of one's children. Do some parents mean to imply that the school is better qualified to dispense religious training than either the home or the church? By relying on the home and our own church we don't have to water down our religious training as the schools would have to do. We can use our favorite translation, be it Douay or King James. We can teach immersion only, also accept affusion, or what have you, when the subject of baptism comes up. We can teach our kids to be Calvinists or Arminians. We can expose them to Catholicism or to our favorite brand of Protestantism. We don't have to water down their prayers in order to make them acceptable to man as well as to God.

Which of these alternatives is more compatible with the teaching of Jesus Christ? After the Supreme Court decision, it would seem that we would see a rush to the home and to the church as these indignant ones sought religious exercises and training for their children. Yet, a nation-wide survey conducted by Christianity Today magazine failed to turn up any new movements to counter the school ban with new devotional forms. There has been a grass-roots Bible study movement for youth afoot for several years, but it saw no appreciable spurt. Even the most vociferous critics of the court decision seemed not inclined to bow the knee any oftener themselves. Student prayer services in a Montpelier, Vermont, church were discontinued because of poor attendance.

Most ironic in this connection is the fact that the United States government has for the last ten years set aside a National Day of Prayer which is largely ignored by church people. Each fall, in accordance with an act of Congress passed in 1952, the President issues a proclamation naming a certain day to be observed as a day of prayer and intercession. Most people never even hear of it.

Isn't it about time that we be done with our hypocrisy? If we want religious training and instruction for our children, we have the blessing of the U. S. Government from the President on down. So long as the home and church are available for this function, what more could we want?

If we want only to make a political issue of this Court ruling, aren't we sinking pretty low when we treat holy things in such a manner?

And as persons are so vitally interested in the religious training of our youth, as we claim to be, aren't we at least duty-bound not to lie, intentionally or unintentionally, as we attempt to report what the Supreme Court ruled not to judge its motives?

District Court Finds Man Guilty on Forgery Charge

Andrew Golden Jr. was found guilty on a charge of forgery and a jury in 104th District Court recommended a two-year sentence in the penitentiary. Judge Owen B. Thomas has not passed sentence.

Two sentences were given last week on conviction of driving while intoxicated, second offense. Joseph G. Goding Jr. was fined $250, and Frank Feiler Senaper was fined $150 and sentenced to 15 days in jail.

Golden was charged with passing checks which he allegedly forged on the account of W. H. Walters of Abilene.

Baptist to Meet in Lubbock Soon

Lubbock — Baptist pastors and laymen from throughout West Texas are expected to gather in the First Baptist Church here Jan. 23-24 for a regional evangelism conference.

The meeting is one of five slated across the state this year to replace the Texas Baptist Evangelistic Conference which had been staged annually in Dallas or Fort Worth since its beginning.

Although last year's conference drew about 20,000 people, evangelism leaders feel that "carrying the meeting to the people" will enable many to attend who could not travel so far. The conferences are geared to the theme "Revival Now."

Texas Draft Quota

More than 6,000 men over the state will be called up for pre-induction physical and mental examinations in February, also, the state director of Selective Service said.

Fund Drive for Scout Hut Near $800 by Wednesday

The Hamlin Lions Club's fund raising drive for a Boy Scout Hut got underway here this past week and the response has been very good in the early reports, according to drive chairman W. T. Johnson.

By Tuesday the drive had raised around $800 of the $2,000 to $2,500 expected to be needed with only a few of the Lions Club members having reported to Johnson at that time.

The club is making a canvas of all of the business men of the city as the first part of their drive to secure enough money to build the concrete block building to be located on the Camp Fire property on S.W. Ave. E.

While no definite building plans have been drawn as yet, early intentions called for a 16 by 48 foot building to be constructed of concrete blocks. The committee hopes to put steel windows and doors in the structure to hold down future maintenance costs.

In an effort to reach the people who might not be contacted in any other way, a "Buy a Block" campaign has been launched through the Herald this week. A 25c donation will buy one concrete block to be used in the building. An estimate of the number of blocks that will be needed has been set at 1,200. On another page of this issue is a coupon that can be used to send money for blocks to Johnson.

The scouts are still trying to sell the property they own that is located on S. W. Ave. E. and use the money on this project. The building when completed will serve well over a 100 boys now active in the scouting program in Hamlin.

TATE MAY AND TED RUSSELL END LONG TENURES HERE

Floyd Clifton was named President and Leldon Clifton, chairman of the board of the Farmers and Merchants National Bank of Hamlin at the annual meeting of stockholders here Tuesday. The Cliftons succeed Tate May and Ted Russell, chairman of the board and president, respectively, who have announced their retirement from the bank.

Other action by the board was the naming of Joe E. Ford cashier and director. He succeeds Miss Lennie Greenway who is retiring as cashier. Miss Greenway has been vice president and cashier of the bank since 1950. She will remain a member of the board.

Floyd Clifton has been executive vice president since he and his brother, Leldon, bought controlling interest in the bank here in 1960. He came here from New Mexico where he was vice president and cashier of the Hot Springs National Bank. He held similar positions with the bank in Rotan before that time.

The new president reported that the bank had the best year in its history this past year with deposits reaching an all time high. They were a half million dollars higher than any previous year on record. He said Wednesday morning that, "The future looks real bright for this area and that he felt that Hamlin was one of the best business towns of its size in West Texas."

Since coming to Hamlin the new bank head has taken an active part in the civic affairs of the community, serving on the City Council, the board of directors of the Hamlin BCD and is a member of the Rotary Club.

Leldon Clifton, the new chairman of the board, moved to Hamlin soon after buying into the bank here and has been a vice president in the organization, a position that he will continue to hold. He is an active member of the Lions Club and the First Baptist Church. He and his wife, Kenna, have two boys, Leldon Lewis and Jim. Mrs. Clifton teaches in the Hamlin Primary School. The Cliftons moved here from Iraan where he was Superintendent of Public School System.

Ford has been with the bank here 14 years. He has been assistant vice president for the past two years before assuming the duties as cashier.

He is a 1949 graduate of Hamlin High School and is married to the former Jo Ann Johnson. They have two children, Gary, 5, and Jan, 4.

Ford is currently serving as President of the Hamlin BCD and is a member of the Hamlin Jaycees and the Lakeview Golf Club. He and his wife are active in the First Baptist Church here.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ford of this city.

Tate May was in Arizona at the time of the directors meeting and no statement as to his future plans were available at this time. May was honored this past May on his 50th anniversary in the banking business. He came to Hamlin in 1907 and started to work in the First National Bank here in 1913.

He was cashier with the First State Bank which was later chartered as a national bank and became the present Farmers and Merchants National Bank.

He was elected president of the bank in 1944 and served in this capacity until 1960 when he became chairman of the board.

He has been very active in the civic affairs of Hamlin and is active in the First Baptist Church here and in various state-wide organizations of the church.

Ted Russell, who has served as president of the bank since 1960, was not ready to announce any plans for the future at this time.

He has been with the bank 43 years. Russell is a member of the First Baptist Church where he served as a deacon. He has served on the State Board of the Texas Baptist General Convention and as vice president of the State Baptist Sunday School Convention.

He has served as president of the Hamlin School Board, the Hamlin Lions Club and the Hamlin Shrine Club. He was one time City Secretary of the City of Hamlin and was on the original board of the Hamlin Memorial Hospital.

Miss Greenway was born in Abilene in 1891 and came to work with the old First National Bank in August 1918. When this bank was sold to the F and M in 1934 she was named assistant cashier. She was named cashier and vice president in 1950 and served in that capacity until her retirement.

She said Wednesday that at present she has no plans for the future but that after resting up some she will look into something.

Miss Greenway is a charter member of the B&PW Club here where she is currently serving as treasurer and has been a member of the Hamlin Cemetery Association since 1934, serving as secretary-treasurer.

She is a member of the National Association of Bank Women and served as Democratic Chairman here for a number of years. She and Mrs. Tom Bunkley of Stamford were the first women in Jones County to serve on a jury panel when the Texas law was changed permitting women to serve.

She is an active member of the First Baptist Church. Other officers who will remain in their present positions are W. T. Johnson, vice president; Buna Roundtree and Faye Atkinson, assistant cashiers.

Directors of the bank named at the annual stockholders meeting Tuesday were: Leldon Clifton; Floyd Clifton; W. T. Johnson; Miss Greenway; Ford; W. J. Bryant of Stamford; J. B. Davenport of San Angelo, and Ramsom Galloway of Spur, president of the Spur Security Bank of Spur.

The new president said that there are no changes in policy planned by the bank.

Funeral Services Held Here Friday For W. L. Boyd

He died Wednesday, Jan. 8, at 4:15 p.m. at his home.

Born Sept. 22, 1879 in Olive Branch, Miss.

He was married Jan. 1, 1905 to Annie Wright in Montague County, Texas.

Mr. Boyd was a retired farmer and stockman, a deacon in the First Baptist Church and a Mason.

Survivors are his widow; sons, Wright J. of Lamesa, W. L. Jr. of Van Horn; four daughters, Mrs. Henry (Dorothy) Albritton of Hamlin, Mrs. Norma Johnson of Lamesa, Mrs. Jack (Mary) Hagelstein of Boone, Colo., Mrs. Phil (Florence) Sparkman of Amarillo, sixteen grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Kenneth Scott, Hollis Madden, T. W. Flenniken, W. J. Beckham, of Lamesa, Holly Toler, Dickie Ferguson, S. C. Ballew, Henry Jackson, Miller Harmon, and Cecil Sellers. Honary pallbearers were members of Mr. Boyd's Sunday School class and the deacons of the church.

News and Views ...

and what have you

by BOB CRAIG

If you read this column last week and wondered why there were two different references to the BCD banquet in it, it was because the last part of the column was not supposed to be in the column at all. It was written as a regular news story for the paper but was put with the column in the shop.

While we feel that the banquet is important for the town and should have a high percentage of the townspeople in attendance, we did not think it was necessary to cover it twice in the same column.

While we are on the subject, don't forget that you can save 50c a ticket by buying before February 1.

I do not believe that the report on cancer and smoking had as big an impact on the public as most people probably thought that it would. Probably for two reasons: one is that publicity over the past two years had convinced the public the report would reveal just about what it did, and the other is that human nature being what it is people just do not seem to be frightened into doing things that they probably should.

This second reason is probably the main cause for so much indifference. All of the facts, figures and research into the tremendously high traffic deaths have failed to make much headway in solving that problem. The death penalty is imposed for murder for the same reason but the person who commits such an act never seems to be concerned about the penalty involved because they do not think that they will be caught.

Whether it is smoking, driving or murder involved, man always takes the attitude that he will be in the percentage that nothing will happen to.

When the experts can come up with a way to overcome this quirk of human nature they will be able to solve lots of our problems, but who knows but what they will create just as many more when they do.

The following editorial is written by H. M. Baggarly, editor of the Tulsa Herald, and while it is extremely long it is reprinted here in full because we feel it presents the issue of school prayer in a light that everyone should consider.

It has been a number of months since the U. S. Supreme Court upheld a decision of a lower court that the New York Regents were acting illegally when they composed a prayer and required that all New York public school students recite this prayer each morning.

Wails from both the clergy and laity continue to be heard. Clergymen, all the way from Billy Graham down to Billy Hargis, damn the U. S. Supreme Court, charging it with "kicking the Bible out of the schools" and "dishonoring God."

Laymen, if we may use the term loosely, who haven't been inside a church for a generation, who make no effort to send their children to Sunday school, are horrified that the Court is acting "in the interest of atheism and Communism!"

We join all those persons who would honestly desire for their children religious training. The ideal for a Christian would be to have his children saturated with Christianity in

COUNTY DADS LET CONTRACT TO COLLECT DELINQUENT TAXES

A contract for collection of delinquent taxes was renewed between Jones County Commissioners Court and Bill Hart, formerly of Midland but now of Eastland. Mr. Hart held a similar contract last year.

Under terms of the agreement he will receive 15 percent of all delinquent taxes, penalty and interest collected. Mr. Hart has had a parttime employee in the office of Tax Assessor-Collector A. J. French to assist in the work. Judge Leon Thurman reported that right of way for Highway 277 was about all acquired. Two land owners have filed appeals to county court from awards made by the jury of view. These are, Vernon Lovvorn and L. J. Gordon.

The court approved costs of moving pipelines by Lone Star breeding light weight steers, 1; breeding beef, 11; breeding swine, 11; fat swine, 20; breeding sheep, 1; fat lambs, 6; broilers, 28; commercial calves, 5.

Only 50 Poll Taxes Issued by BCD

The sale of poll tax receipts at the office of the Hamlin Board of Community Development is lagging as only 50 have been sold the first half of the month. Last year 300 receipts were obtained through the local sub-station, according to the BCD secretary, Mrs. Ned Moore.

Residents are urged to buy their poll taxes early so as to prevent a last minute rush.

Representatives of several insurance companies met with the court to discuss possibility of writing hospital insurance for county employees. No decision was reached.

A representative from Burroughs Corporation from Abilene told of work a posting machine would do in the tax office. Mr. French said he would need a piece of equipment similar to this if he was to be able to get tax notices out in time this year after the new valuations are delivered to the county by McMorries and Co. who have been employed to make a survey of property values in the county. No action was taken on the purchase.

PHILOSOPHER NOT INTERESTED IN HAVING COMPUTER TELL HIM TO FIX SAGGING GATE

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route 1 tangles with computer machines this week, his letterindi cates. Dear editor:

According to some articles I've been reading in the newspapers lately, we're now entering the Computer Age.

As I understand it, electronic brain machines are being used more and more in business and government and science, and they seem to work. For example, one computer machine in a big insurance company office can do the work of 1,000 clerks, and do it faster and more accurately, without coffee breaks, summer vacations, or head colds.

Furthermore, man is using the machines to solve complicated problems, to analyze figures, to detect trends, to balance bank accounts, to advise what business course to take. All you do is feed the facts and figures to the computer and it grinds its gears and flashes its lights and types out the answer in two or three seconds, and you can rent one of the smaller, compact models for $100,000 a year.

I am not in the market for one.

I guess it would be fascinating to collect all the facts and figures on this Johnson grass farm, all the things that need to be done to increase its efficiency, tell the machine what the weather has been like for every week for the past 25 years, what the production has been, what the market has been, etc., and feed them to it and sit back and let it type out what my jobs are for 1964, but I would be uncomfortable with a machine that can tell me in 3 seconds what I ought to be doing for the next twelve months. One day at a time suits me fine, and hound by hour is even better.

I don't want anw machine coming on this place and telling me the gate in the front yard is sagging, the kitchen roof has a leak, a board on the back step is loose, the pasture fence on the west line needs re-building, by tractor's valves need grinding, I ought to use more fertilizer, or I ought to modernize by book-keeping system.

I've known this for years, and if the machine wants to do something about it let it go ahead, I don't intend to.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Years Ago...

FIVE YEARS AGO:
The thousands of acres of small grain in the Hamlin territory got a semblance of relief Tuesday from the drought that has persisted for several weeks when about a quarter of an inch of snow fell over the area. While the dribble of moisture that results from the small snowfall will be of some benefit, grain farmers declare that the crops of wheat and oats planted last fall are still in dire need of some real wetness.

TEN YEARS AFO:
Grain in the Hamlin area has perked up the past several days following the three inches of moisture that has fallen this year in the territory.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO:
Truman Nix formerly of Lorraine, was elected assistant assistant football coach at Hamlin High School, it is announced this week by Superintendent I. R. Hutchingson. He replaces Johnny Howell, who recently resigned to resume his studies at McMurry College in Abilene.

TWENTY FIVE YEARS AGO:
Edwina Gilbert will present her piano pupils in a concert Tuesday evening at the high school with the following students appearing on the program: Billye Glynn Chambers, Dora Joyce Culbertson, Martha Nell Henry, Joan Culbertson, Billye Faye Rountree, Anna Margaret York, Bobbie Wilson, Jeannine Johnston and La Nelle Carlton, Milton Fletcher, Harold Fletcher, Charles Brown, Buford Jackson, Jimmy Clements, Donald Cherry, James Elwood Rodgers and Glenn Richardson.

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO:
Deposits of the Farmers and Merchants National Bank at the close of business on December 31, 1928 were $99,309.27 according to the latest statement of the bank.

WTU announces PATTERNS FOR PROGRESS—a new phase in the public service information program for the fast-growing Center of the Southwest fast-growing Center of the Southwest

For many months we have presented facts about population, industrial, commercial, financial, and the civic growth of West Texas and about the millions of dollars being spent for major expansion.

Beginning in 1964, we will present a new phase of our public service information program...PATTERNS FOR PROGRESS...the basic economic factors which are helping this area in its continued growth and which make it a good place to live, work, and play. The new advertising program is designed to help you (and the communities we serve) develop new growth opportunities. We are proud of the area we serve and are convinced that it...in the Center of the Southwest...faces GROWTH UNLIMITED.

PRIDE AND JOY!

Proud Father...you bet...this is my child...she's sweet, trusting, lovely and brings great joy to my life. I work harder in order to better my income so that I can provide for her. She thrills me, and already I am making plans for her future. Right now we are all dressed up and getting ready to go to church. I love her, and I want the best for her. I want her to know early about God, and that he means a lot to me, and I want God to mean a lot to her, too!

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Regardless of what the weather man tells us, every weekend we have a new cold spell, it has been that way for the last year or more. Every Sunday is cold, which makes it hard to get a crowd out to church everywhere. It seems as if the old Devil has found out how to make ice down in his realm, and sends blasts of cold air every weekend, to keep people in their warm homes, and away from church services.

Flavil Holmes is on the sick list this weekend, he had the flu and went to work too soon, getting sick again.

A pioneer resident of this community, Mrs. Mattie Bruner, died last week, in the Hamlin Hospital, where she has been a patient for the past eleven months. Although she had lived in Hamlin for many years, she and her husband, reared their family at the family home stead, formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Eli Bruner. Mr. Bruner preceded her in death many years ago.

We only learned, recently, that Mr. and Mrs. Eli Bruner have moved to Hamlin. Every few weeks some one else moves to town, so it will soon be such a few of us that we won't have any one to write about.

Mrs. Elmer Joiner went to Stamford Monday afternoon to visit with the Jimmy Joiners and found little grandson, Ronald, with a good case of chicken-pox. A late Sunday report was that the daughter, Jeanie, was really speckled at that time.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. — With less formality than he would display in warning his wife he was inviting guests to dinner at the Mansion, Gov. John Connally "announced" he is running for a second term.

Actually the announcement was no great surprise, although rumors continued that he was going to Washington, retire, or run for the Senate. But the informality of it did leave some reporters wondering if they heard him right.

"When are you going to announce?" a newsman asked at the start of Connally's first press conference since he was wounded by the same assassin who killed President Kennedy.

"What's wrong with right now?" the Governor shot back. "Well, are you announcing now?" stammered another reporter.

"Good a time as any," shrugged the Governor nonchalantly. "I have no prepared statement, but I'll announce right now for re-election as Governor."

And that's the way it happened! Before the conference was over, a half-hour later, Connally also:

Predicted the Democratic national ticket, which he expects will be headed by his old friend President Lyndon Johnson, will beat the Republicans in Texas by a 60-40 margin.

Said he still sees no need for a special legislative session on congressional redistricting unless the Supreme Court unexpectedly acts early to uphold a lower court decision on "at-large" (statewide) elections for congressmen.

Declined to be drawn into U. S. Senate race controversy and efforts to find an opponent for Sen. Ralph Yarborough, but indicated waves of harmony engulfing President Johnson and Yarborough do not necessarily include him. Said Connally: "My thoughts are my own."

He is recovering his strength, has regained lost weight, has given up smoking, and has a collection of tailored slings for his shattered right arm including a grey herringbone sling, a blue serge, a red velvet for sport, and a black formal with a silk "lapel" and covered buckle in the back, all from a lady in Kentucky.

APPOINTMENTS MADE — Sherman Birdwell Jr., Austin funeral home operator, was Governor Connally's choice as employer representative on the Texas Employment Commission. Birdwell succeeds Jake Pickle who was elected to Congress from the 10th District last month.

Birdwell topped a long list of new appointments. Connally renamed Paul Fulk of Wolf City and A. G. Thompson of Hamilton to the Texas Aeronautics Commission. Fulk is a past president of the Texas Press Association and owner of the Texas City Sun. Thompson is a business-rancher.

To the Nueces River Conservation and Reclamation District he named: Ramiro R. Ramirez, Alice banker; Ben M. Silva, Carrizo Springs rancher; J. Bernard Vine, Dilley businessman; Ferd Meyer, Devine farmer; Melvin Rowland, Uvalde businessman; Harry Shultz, Three Rivers attorney; and LeRoy Smith, San Antonio insurance man.

Appointed to the Historical Survey Committee were Will Davis, Austin attorney; Mrs. Dan Lester, Jefferson civic leader; and Charles R. Woodburn, Amarillo businessman.

Connally appointed Judge Wendell Odom to the Harris County Criminal District Court No. 2; William M. Hatten to Harris County Court of Domestic Relations No. 2; and George E. Cline to the new 165th District Court of Harris County. Appointment dates are effective April 15 for Odom and Hatten and June 1 for Cline.

THE COURTS SPEAK — The Supreme Court has held that Judge J. H. Starley is fully eligible to preside over trial of eight-year-old suit to determine Rio Grande Water rights over a vast area in Starr, Hidalgo, Cameron and Willacy counties.

Property ownership in the area by Mrs. Starley's uncle and aunt do not disqualify the judge, the high court concluded in directing that the trial proceed.

A suit to halt shell dredging near live oyster reefs in Galveston to Trinity Bays has been transferred from Houston to Austin and is slated to be heard in 126th District Court here January 28.

Attorneys for small-tract oilmen urged the Supreme Court to alter its 1961 Normanna decision bearing on oil-field allocation formulas. The landmark decision of a couple of years ago threw out favorable oil and gas production formulas for the small producers.

Small tract men claim the decision will overturn formulas in 300 Texas gas fields and 2,000 oil fields, and definitely will hurt their interests.

CURB TEENAGE SMOKING — The State Health Department has a word of advice to teenage smokers: "Be smart — Don't start!"

Dr. J. E. Peavy, Texas health commissioner who recently gave up cigarettes himself, says the department will put up anti-smoking exhibits at junior and senior high schools in the 10 largest cities of the State.

The plan preceded release of a national fact-finding committee report on dangers of smoking.

GAS RATE APPEAL RATE SET — The Railroad Commission has set a hearing January 21 to hear the appeal of Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company over refusal of several Northeast Texas towns to grant it a rate raise. Towns include: Atlanta, Bloomberg, Gilmer, Naples, New Boston, Omaha, Ore City and Queen City.

JUNIOR COLLEGES — Many people interested in state government and education are saying we need more junior colleges in Texas.

The National Education Association has said the country should add the first two college years to the present system of free public education.

Texas Research League has advised the State Board of Education that there are at least 17 counties in Texas which could qualify for new junior colleges: Angeline, Brazos, Dallas, Denton, El Paso, Hale, Hidalgo, (when Pan American becomes a four-year State co-ed), Lubbock, McLennan; Tarant;

Taylor, Wichita, Tom Green (when San Angelo College joins the State system), Orange and Midland.

In Travis, Grayson, Liberty and other counties, junior colleges already have been authorized but local taxpayers haven't yet supplied the financing.

Other counties might join together and qualify for a junior college, if suggestions of the Research League are passed into law.

TEXAS AGRICULTURE — Lt. Governor Preston Smith, speaking to the State Association of Young Farmers in Austin, said that agriculture in Texas will continue to progress despite population shifts and changes in land use.

Smith said there are 224,000 farm in Texas today, with total value exceeding $14,500,000,000; that $2,500,000,000 worth of farm products were marketed in Texas last year; and that another $2,000,000,000 in farm machinery, seed, fertilizer, and other farming necessities were sold in Texas.

SCREWWORM COUNT ZERO — Texas stockmen did not report a single case of screwworms from Dec. 29 through the first week in January, according to Dr. R. G. Garrett of the Texas Animal Health Commission.

Dr. Garrett said the 17-day stretch without a case reported was a record breaker, and recalled that 157 cases were reported last January.

At the same time, he urged stockmen to inspect their animals carefully to make sure the screwworm doesn't get a new start.

SHORT SNORTS — State's general revenue fund showed a $23,800,000 deficit at the end of December. Total cash in all State fund was $235,300,000. House Speaker Byron Tunnell of Tyler announced for re-election to his House seat.

George W. Bushy, chief of the inspection and planning division of the Department of Public Safety, is the State's Vehicle Equipment Safety Commissioner, under a new law designed to exercise control over safety equipment and expedite approval.

Agriculture Commissioner John C. White, who has held office since 1951, has announced for a seventh term. Republic State Executive Committee will meet in Houston on January 18 to approve budget plans, survey its 1964 candidates and beef up its poll tax drive.

RADIO CLUB MEMBERS AID WRECK VICTIMS IN AREA

Members of the local Citizens Radio Club were instrumental in securing aid as they were the first to report two major automobile accidents last week. Friday, about 4:30 p.m. an accident involving four vehicles was reported by Monroe Wilson of Spur who happened to be at the scene, 1.6 miles north of here, soon after the wreck occurred.

Wilson made contact with Spencer Liles who phoned the Police Department.

Other members at the scene assisted in directing traffic and also furnished flares to help prevent accident to other vehicles. The Highway Patrolmen expressed appreciation to the club for this aid.

Gary Cooper was on his way to Stamford Saturday evening when he witnessed an accident near the city limits. By using the radio in his car he was able to get help there immediately after the wreck in which two persons were injured. Cooper reached Delton Jackson who in turn called the Police Department. The funeral home, hearing the report via radio, sent an ambulance to the scene and carried Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nall to the hospital here.

Mr. and Mrs. Nall were treated at the hospital for minor injuries and released Tuesday.

The accident occurred on Highway 92 as Mr. and Mrs. Nall and a car driven by George Washington were both traveling east, at the time of the accident. Also damaged was a parked vehicle, owner's name not available.

On another occasion a local radio fan, Gene Wilcox, contacted Mrs. Jerry Pritchard who turned in the alarm for a fire on West Lake.

Membership in the radio club continues to grow. At present there are 41 active members.

No technical knowledge of radio is required to receive a license from the Federal Communications Commission. License fee for a period of five years is $8.00. This came into effect the first of this year.

A person with a CB radio in his home (base station) and one in his automobile (mobile unit) can maintain contact with the other as far away as Abilene. This is a convenience to say the least. Farmers and Ranchers who live in town can have direct contact with their personnel or other members of the family at all times. Business men in Hamlin are finding the radio very useful as well as profitable.

Anyone interested in CB radio or who would like to join the club contact Spencer Liles,

NEIGHBORS HELP TUXEDO FARMER WITH FIELDS THURS.

There are those who would have everyone believe that the pioneer spirit of helping each other passed out of style several generations ago, but don't you believe it.

True, with larger farms, big powerful tractors, a specialized economy and other modern developments, we see none of the old-time barn-raising or house-raising that the old timers like to tell about.

But let a man become ill or fall into a bad situation where he really needs help, and all his friends and neighbors will be right there to help.

Joe Carlton, who farms near the Tuxedo Community found this out Thursday morning when 13 tractors and men pulled into his fields about 9 a.m. By 3 p.m., his entire 300-acre farm was plowed and in shape to await spring rains.

Last Oct. 28, Mr. Carlton suffered a serious heart attack. After he was on the road to recovery he received the doctor's verdict: "No work for at least a full year."

Luckily, the Carlton crop was almost harvested. With help from a brother, the harvesting operations were completed.

Tuxedo area farmers got together and picked a day when all of them would get together and plow the Carlton place. On the appointed day was set. It rained again.

Then Thursday, Jan. 9, was selected and it didn't rain. The 13 tractors were equipped with one-way disc breaking plows and tandem discs. The large fleet of equipment spread out over the 300-acre farm. Bill Pritchard, a coordinator of the work force, estimated the tractors were covering 50 to 60 acres each hour.

Twenty-four men helped with the project. The ones who weren't driving tractors were kept busy hustling back and forth from field to field keeping the tractors distributed in fields where they could get the most work done.

The men who helped were E. D. Apperson, Tom Jones, Oran Brigham, H. L. For, Spencer Baize, Carl Lunn, Jerry Neuman, Craig Stephens, H. E. Balliant, H. B. Propst, Bill Pritchard, Tom Gilbreath, Fred Osment, B. R. Baize, Earnest Pearson, Gonzalo Ramirez.

Also, Tommy Beach, Joe Ford, Lee Flores, Alfredo Almonzo, Santiago Trivino, Tilly Perez, Joe Cavacas and Frank Segura.

should you pamper a Princess?

Depends on which princess—the teenager or the telephone. All teenage princesses—so we're told—glory in a little pampering.

But the Princess® telephone is so well made and trouble free that no pampering is required. Just dust it occasionally or wipe it with a damp cloth.

That, plus a little care in handling, is all the attention any phone needs. And phones almost never need repair—but if something does go on the blink, we'll fix it promptly at no extra charge.

We think it's our job to keep right on improving your telephone service and making it of greater personal value to you.

889 Area People Checked on Social Security Benefits

689 persons in and around Hamlin took pains in 1963 to find out for sure about their rights and responsibilities under social security, according to Mrs. Fay Ford, field representative from the Abilene district office who visits Hamlin regularly.

Mrs. Ford knows the above

because she had that many personal interviews on her visits, with 148 applications for retirement, disability, or survivor benefits being filed with her.

She suggests that every person past the age of 62 who has not already checked up on potential social security checks, as well as those of any age under 65 who have become so severely disabled that they are unable to do any substantial gainful work, make certain to see her on one of her future visits here. She will be in Hamlin on January 28 at 10 o'clock a.m. at the Fire Station.

COLUMN—

—Continued from Page 1 each phase of his life. Many such people, primarily the honest ones, have felt so strongly along these lines that they have established and patronized parochial schools. The Catholics and Lutherans pioneered in this field. In later years, evangelical Protestants have joined in the establishment of Christian day schools.

Others, apparently, would transform the public schools into parochial schools . . . their own denomination, of course.

For many years public schools have been closely associated with religion . . . and without criticism due to the fact that (1) all society has honored religion by tax concessions and otherwise, (2) no one wanted to go on record as hindering the work of the church, and (3) the masses, feeling that Christian exercises at least were harmless, simply didn't care.

The legality of the matter has never before been a consideration.

In predominantly Protestant communities were conducted in what the schools even officially called "chapel," visiting evangelists were invited to speak to the student body, the virtues of Protestantism over Catholicism were discussed in class since there were no Catholics present who might be offended.

Church and school worked hand in hand by scheduling no school activities on Wednesday night which theoretically was universally observed as "prayer meeting night." Churches sought to have no school activities scheduled during their annual or semi-annual revival meetings.

Protestant services were conducted in connection with graduation.

In predominantly Catholic communities, nuns were employed as teachers, wearing, of course, their clerical garb. The Catholics, much like the Protestants, reflected their religion in their public school activities.

Regardless of our approval or disapproval of these religious exercises as they have been practiced, we must admit, if we are honest, that both Protestants and Catholics have been guilty of "mixing church and state." The truth has been that many people, without being aware of it, have believed and do believe in mixing church and state. Whenever we desire to advance the cause of our religion via the public schools, we believe in mixing church and state!

We cannot even read the Bible in school, as an act of worship, without mixing church and state. Our selection of the particular translation of the Bible which we use is an injection of sectarianism into the act. The RSV, according to some fanatics, is "honey-combed with Communism." Certainly there would be objection in some communities if a teacher read from the Douay version.

Those who insist on compulsory prayers and compulsory Bible reading in the schools might ponder the question, "Would I want my child to be compelled to recite a prayer written by a Catholic, a Mormon, a Jehovah Witness or one who condones the National Council of Churches . . . or the American Council of Christian Churches?"

If we would be honest, we must admit that religious exercises in public schools are in the same category with a lot of other things. We go through stages when, even though we may be technically in violation of the law, public opinion demands that enforcement agencies look the other way. Park on the wrong side of the street is condoned in some instances even though there is a technical violation . . . and public opinion has demanded that school buses be used to transport kids to a church picnic, that local ministers participate in school programs and the like.

So long as these practices go unchallenged, everybody is happy.

We are quite sure that there was nothing offensive in the prayer composed by the Regents of the State of New York . . . but there is a principle involved. What if somebody composed a prayer that referred to the Virgin Mary?

Regardless of our opinion as to either the desirability or the legality of conducting religious exercises in public schools, let us consider what courses honest, conscientious Christians might take in even public schools decided to eliminate religious training. They might:

1. Rise up in "righteous indignation" and damn the U. S.

Supreme Court, demand its impeachment, call it anti-God, and in a hundred ways give vent to temper, hatred and false accusation. They might even defy the Court. . . a la Wallace or Barnett.

2. Quietly and without ostentation turn to other sources for the spiritual training of our children. The "godless" U. S. Supreme Court in its decision suggested . . . even urged that the home and church be used for the spiritual education of one's children. Do some parents mean to imply that the school is better qualified to dispense religious training than either the home or the church? By relying on the home and our own church we don't have to water down our religious training as the schools would have to do. We can use our favorite translation, be it Douay or King James. We can teach immersion only, also accept affusion, or what have you, when the subject of baptism comes up. We can teach our kids to be Calvinists or Arminians. We can expose them to Catholicism or to our favorite brand of Protestantism. We don't have to water down their prayers in order to make them acceptable to man as well as to God.

Which of these alternatives is more compatible with the teaching of Jesus Christ? After the Supreme Court decision, it would seem that we would see a rush to the home and to the church as these indignant ones sought religious exercises and training for their children. Yet, a nation-wide survey conducted by Christianity Today magazine failed to turn up any new movements to counter the school ban with new devotional forms. There has been a grass-roots Bible study movement for youth afoot for several years, but it saw no appreciable spurt. Even the most vociferous critics of the court decision seemed not inclined to bow the knee any oftener themselves. Student prayer services in a Montpelier, Vermont, church were discontinued because of poor attendance.

Most ironic in this connection is the fact that the United States government has for the last ten years set aside a National Day of Prayer which is largely ignored by church people. Each fall, in accordance with an act of Congress passed in 1952, the President issues a proclamation naming a certain day to be observed as a day of prayer and intercession. Most people never even hear of it.

Isn't it about time that we be done with our hypocrisy? If we want religious training and instruction for our children, we have the blessing of the U. S. Government from the President on down. So long as the home and church are available for this function, what more could we want?

If we want only to make a political issue of this Court ruling, aren't we sinking pretty low when we treat holy things in such a manner?

And as persons are so vitally interested in the religious training of our youth, as we claim to be, aren't we at least dutybound not to lie, intentionally or unintentionally, as we attempt to report what the Supreme Court ruled not to judge its motives?

District Court Finds Man Guilty on Forgery Charge

Andrew Golden Jr. was found guilty on a charge of forgery and a jury in 104th District Court recommended a two-year sentence in the penitentiary. Judge Owen B. Thomas has not passed sentence.

Two sentences were given last week on conviction of driving while intoxicated, second offense. Joseph G. Golding Jr. was fined $250, and Frank Reier Schnaper was fined $150 and sentenced to 15 days in jail.

Golden was charged with passing checks which he allegedly forged on the account of W. H. Walters of Abilene.

Baptist to Meet in Lubbock Soon

Lubbock — Baptist pastors and laymen from throughout West Texas are expected to gather in the First Baptist Church here Jan. 23-24 for a regional evangelism conference.

The meeting is one of five slated across the state this year to replace the Texas Baptist Evangelistic Conference which had been staged annually in Dallas or Fort Worth since its beginning.

Although last year's conference drew about 20,000 people, evangelism leaders feel that "carrying the meeting to the people" will enable many to attend who could not travel so far. The conferences are geared to the theme "Revival Now."

Texas Draft Quota

AUSTIN. — The state draft quota for February calls for 517 men, compared to 812 for January, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, said Wednesday.

The state quota of 517 for February is the Texas share of a national call for 12,000 men, all for the Army.

More than 6,000 men over the state will be called up for pre-induction physical and mental examinations in February, also, the state director of Selective Service said.
